

IRA Distribution

Documents Required Prior to Distribution Funding

Taking money out of an IRA is referred to as a distribution.

See below for more information on Midland's requirements for taking a distribution from your account.

To be supplied by client to Midland:

- Distribution Form - Completed & signed by client
- Account Information - All information must be completed in order to process
- Distribution Type
- Distribution Details - Including manner of distribution and federal withholding. If elected, federal withholding must be 10% or greater; Midland does not withhold state taxes.
- Funding Instructions - ACH - No Charge (ACH may take up to three business days), Wire - $30 fee, Check - $5 fee, International Wire - $50 wire fee plus $25 processing fee (deposit times vary)
- Signature and Acknowledgment

Common Questions About IRA Distributions:

Q: How does Midland report distributions to the IRS?

A: Midland reports distributions to the IRS annually on Form 1099-R. Clients who have taken distribution(s) throughout the year will receive IRS Form 1099-R in the mail at the end of January.

Q: What is the penalty for taking an early distribution?

A: Distributions taken from traditional IRAs prior to the age of 59 ½ are subject to a 10% penalty, in addition to applicable federal and state taxes. There are exceptions to this rule (first-time home purchase, qualified education expense for you or your dependents, death or disability, un-reimbursed medical expenses, or health insurance, if you are unemployed). Also, if distributions are taken from a SIMPLE IRA within the first two years, the penalty is 25%.

Midland does not determine whether or not distributions are eligible for an exception and processes all distributions prior to age 59 ½ as early. If one of the above mentioned exceptions applies, then you may need to file IRS Form 5329 with your taxes. Please see the instructions on IRS Form 5329 and talk to your tax advisor.

Q: Do I have to elect federal tax withholding?

A: No. If you elect for federal tax withholding, you are essentially prepaying taxes that you may owe for this distribution. If you would prefer to settle any tax obligations at tax time, you can elect out of tax withholding by selecting the first option, "I elect NOT to have federal income tax withheld."

5 SIGNATURE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Notice of Withholding

The distributions you receive from your individual retirement account established at this institution are subject to federal income tax withholding unless you elect not to have withholding apply. You may elect not to have withholding apply to your distribution payments by completing the "Withholding Election" section above. If you do not complete the "Withholding Election" section by the date your distribution is scheduled to begin, federal income tax will be withheld from the amount withdrawn at a rate of 10%. If you elect not to have withholding apply to your distribution payments, or if you do not have enough federal income tax withheld from your distribution, you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. You may incur penalties under the estimated tax rules if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient.

I certify that I am the proper party to receive payment(s) from this IRA, and that all information provided by me is true and accurate. I acknowledge that I have read the Notice of Withholding and have completed the Withholding Election above. I further certify that no tax advice has been given to me by the Administrator Custodian, and that distributions are reported to the IRS, and that all decisions regarding this withdrawal are my own. I expressly assume the responsibility for any adverse consequences which may arise from this withdrawal and I agree that the Administrator or Custodian shall in no way be responsible for those consequences.
